Mr. and Mrs. Connie Lee Dungan

Dungans honored on golden date

ROCKY CREEK — Mr. and Mrs. Connie Lee Dungan were honored Nov. 6 on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary with a reception in the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard "Bud" Dungan.

The couple was married before the Rev. Jimmy Davis on Nov. 4, 1933, when Mr. Dungan took as his bride the former Edna Jessie Craft. At the anniversary celebration, the Rev. Steve Housley brought a special blessing.

For the occasion Mrs. Dungan chose a rust striped dress tied at the high neckline with a large bow. Complementing the frock was a tailored rust jacket, with which she wore an orchid corsage, tied with lace ribbons. Mr. Dungan wore a three-piece dark brown suit with gold shirt, and a golden rose boutonniere.

Gold was the order of the day, as the honored couple's daughter, daughters-in-law and granddaughters donned the anniversary color for the celebration.

Tables were laid with lace cloths and centered with gilded satin roses in candelabra arrangements. Guests were served from crystal trays and dishes of nuts, mints and hors d'oeuvres, and cake and punch were also served.

Focal point of the refreshment tables was a lavish cake of three tiers, iced in white and gold. The bottom layer of the main cake was a miniature lighted fountain, golden drops cascading from its four tiers. The second layer rose in two stages atop slender Grecian columns entwined with golden ribbons. Atop this layer, separated from the third tier by a simulated wrought iron trellis, stood a golden wedding couple.

Leading to this tier was a stairway, built up from a second cake sitting atop a series of trellised columns and garlanded with greenery. On the stairway were formally attired miniatures representing each of the honorees' children: Faye Neely of Panama City, Fla.; Don Dungan of Montgomery, Ala., and Edwin Dungan, Peggy Havard, Bud Dungan and Billy Dungan, all of Lucedale.

The top layer of the main confection was surmounted with a massed arrangement of wedding bells joyously pealing and a 50-year emblem, tied with net and festooned with pearls.

Serving the cake were daughters Faye Neely and Peggy Havard, assisted by daughter-in-law Janet Dungan. Punch was served by daughters-in-law Betty Dungan of Montgomery and Dottie Dungan of Lucedale.

Guests were registered by granddaughters Diane Dungan of Montgomery and Shem Dungan of Lucedale. Assisting with linens were granddaughters Cheryl Neely and Pam Neely of Panama City, and tea girls were granddaughters Kim Dungan and Heather Havard.

Assisting guests as outdoor ushers were grandsons Donnie Dungan and Darrel Dungan of Montgomery, and Vince Havard of Lucedale. Also assisting with the reception were Loraine Shepard, Juanita Evans and Linda Dungan.

Mr. and Mrs. Dungan were honored to have all their children and their families present for the festivities, and for the church services which preceded them that Sunday morning.

Out of state guests included Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Hayden of Seattle, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Turney Kearley of Evergreen, Ala.; Robert Pierce and Frankie Pierce of Jackson, Ala.; Isabelle Shepard of Coffeeville, Ala.

Other out of town guests were Josephine Toche of Ocean Springs; Mr. and Mrs. Houston Eubanks of Union; Geraldine Harper, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Harper and Mr. and Mrs. Delma Bustin of Laurel; Lula Mae Havard, Theresa Prentiss, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Byrd, and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Reeves of Leakesville, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rakish of Moss Point.

Mr. Dungan was a farmer and retired from civil service. The couple have made their home in George County for the past 60 years.

Many other friends and relatives from surrounding communities visited with the family during the day, sharing in the joyous occasion.
